Ms. June G. Walker
Executive Director
The President's Commission on
Executive Exchange
The White House
Washington, D.C. 20503

Dear Ms. Walker:

As you know, we support the principle of the Presidential Executive Exchange program and believe it offers tangible benefits to both the U.S. Government and the private sector. Therefore, each year we have tried to devise arrangements suitable to both the intent of the program and the needs of the Exchange Executives. Unfortunately, because of the way we are organized and the constraints under which we must operate, this has proved difficult to impossible. Our front offices are very small (usually one special assistant) and operate with minimal compartmentation of even the most sensitive classified material. Even after full security screening, exposing an individual to that material for a relatively short period before he or she returns to the private sector is incompatible with our obligation to protect intelligence sources and methods. The alternative, assigning an Exchange Executive to a lower level or more narrow element of our business, is incompatible with the spirit of the program. For these reasons, we have reluctantly concluded that, in fairness to all concerned, it would be wise to discontinue our involvement in the program.

Sincerely,

Attached is a resume of Major who is a White House Fellow. He has indicated an interest in being assigned for a one year period to the Central Intelligence Agency. As you may remember, we have had White House Fellows in the Agency in the past, such as Special Assistant to our former DCI, Admiral Stansfield Turner. I might add that historically White House Fellows are only placed in true front office positions, such as Special Assistant to the Vice President, members of the Cabinet, etc. In addition to the work assignment, the Fellowship includes an educational program which parallels and broadens the unique experience of working at the highest levels of the Federal Government. This educational aspect of the Program is designed so as to have a minimum impact on the normal work schedule of the Fellow.

We understand that [redacted] has a real interest in the intelligence field--aspiring to eventually be head of DIA. He would be available for interview about 27 June. Please let me have your comments concerning your possible interest in this office by 21 June.

Our White House Fellow Coordinator, [redacted] will complete the arrangements incident to establishing suitable interview times.

In general I agree with Mr Gates --
However, Mr Casey is on board with the White House on these programs. ALSO we should look upon this Major coming here on a military detail basis. That may put this in a different light.

DD/Pers 3 - I happen to agree with Gates.

good one, except CIA - I'm sure Reagan would agree!

PRESIDENT'S
COMMISSION ON WHITE HOUSE FELLOWSHIPS

THE WHITE HOUSE

May 27, 1983

MEMORANDUM

TO: Cabinet Secretaries
Agency Directors

FROM:  James E. Roberts, Director

SUBJECT: Interviews for placement of 1983-84 White House Fellows

The President has announced the names of the new class of White House Fellows. The thirteen newly-selected Fellows are a diverse group of very able individuals, and they will bring a variety of educational backgrounds and professional experiences to their assignments. Their Fellowship year begins September 1, 1983.

During the week of June 27 new Fellows will return to Washington for interviews with the various agencies and departments where they might be placed. The application each submitted for the program as well as a narrative biographical sketch is enclosed with this memorandum. I am requesting that you let us know whom you would like to interview. We will schedule an initial interview with those Fellows early in the placement week. We also hope it will be possible to schedule interviews with the Fellows requesting to be considered by your department or agency. This will leave time later in the week for the Fellow(s) in whom you are interested to return for additional discussions with principals. Our goal is to complete most of the placement process by the week's end on Friday, July 1.

The work assignment of the White House Fellow with its unique opportunities to learn, contribute and observe, is the central focus of the White House Fellowships program. The Commission stresses this aspect and insists that all other aspects of the program, including the extensive education program, should be secondary. As part of the Fellows' education program, seminars are scheduled (usually at lunch time or in the evening) on a regular basis and occasional field trips are organized as well. The Fellows' work assignments take priority, however, and nothing should interfere with a Fellow participating as a full and productive member of your staff. The Fellows will be available from September 1, 1983 to August 31, 1983.

The expenses incurred by a department or agency placing a Fellow are:

1. Salary--the grade level varies according to the background of the Fellow but may not exceed GS 15, step 6. Military Fellows remain on the Department of Defense payroll.
2. Travel costs during the year for the education program. These costs will not exceed $4,000.
3. If possible, the round trip travel to Washington, D.C. for the interview week for the Fellow whom you hire.

The attached material gives fuller information on pay status, fringe benefits and other details. Please call Nancy Seiler if you have questions on the appointment authority, salary, etc. (395-4522).

The interview schedule will be set up by Ms. Jeri Bott in our office (395-4522). Please let us know as soon as possible whom you wish to interview. Jeri will prepare an interview schedule for each Fellow. Please stay in touch with us during the week of June 27 to schedule follow-up interviews as you may want them.

Full field investigations have been completed on each Fellow and are available for initiation of security clearances from the Assistant for Personnel Investigations, Office of Personnel Management, Washington, D.C. 20415. Call Tom Cookingham at 254-6464.

Admiral James Stockdale, the Commission chairman, and the other Commission members are pleased with the interest you have expressed in having a Fellow during the coming Fellowship year. We are deeply appreciative of this strong degree of support and interest.
